“... studying French at AFM paid off”

Pinky Amador
ACTRESS, SINGER,
DEPARTMENT HEAD, THEATER ARTS
MERIDIAN INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE

Finally all my years of studying French at AFM (many times over) paid off, when I had to re-study the language to prepare for my role as Edith Gassion in Atlantis Production's "Piaf" in March 2013. I am so thankful for their support not only for the classes but also for intensive phonetic study through the one-on-one coaching sessions. Singing in French is certainly not easy and there is no way I would have been able to portray Piaf, and garner all the accolades without the support of Anna Austria (my teacher) and Stephane Doutrelant of AFM.

“I never missed a class”

Doris Faylona
FRENCH LANGUAGE INSTRUCTOR
ATENEO DE MANILA UNIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY OF ASIA & THE PACIFIC

At AFM I enjoyed my classes immensely, I never missed a class. Little did I know that I had taken the first step at embarking on a new career that would enrich my life. I am now teaching French in two universities and I love it! The joys of teaching the language are tremendous and I even get to travel to some of the most beautiful cities in Europe, thanks to the job.

“Learning French brings you places”

Enrico Ceguerra
TECHNOLOGY CONSULTANT
HEWLETT PACKARD
(ENTERPRISE SERVICES)

I first heard French at a high school language club, fell in love with the sound of it and learned it formally at the university. However, it was only at the Alliance Française de Manille that I really learned how to speak and write. Memories of my first day three years ago at AFM still make me smile, that day when all I could say was “Bonjour” and “Je m'appelle Éric.” Learning French brings you places. I was able to take advantage of the skill professionally at a multinational organization which deals with French clients. It is a rewarding role, because not everyone can speak en français. I have never been to France, and it still remains a big item on my checklist, but when my colleagues and friends hear me speak the language, they find it hard to believe I learned it all at AFM. Et ben ouï!

“French is the language of diplomacy”

Rapunzel Acop
DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

It was the summer of 2003 when I learned French in AFM. I tried to condense 60 hours of French in two months in preparation for my MBA in Europe. It appears that I learned enough because I was placed in the advanced French class, instead of the beginner's class, in Europe. After graduation, I worked in a French company in Paris where I had to read, write and speak in French. When I came home in Manila in 2007, therefore, it felt natural to return to my roots and teach French in AFM. I now work in the foreign service and my French still helps me because French is the language of diplomacy. Not a day goes by without seeing a note verbale, receiving a démarche or drafting an agrément. One day, hopefully, I will get to present my lettres de créances.

CERTIFICATIONS

VALIDATE YOUR LANGUAGE SKILLS BY OBTAINING AN OFFICIAL, INDEPENDENT AND INTERNATIONALLY-RECOGNIZED DIPLOMA.

DELFB - Diplôme d'Etudes en Langue Française & DALFB - Diplôme Approfondi de Langue Française

DELF & DALF are official qualifications awarded by the French Ministry of Education to certify the competency of candidates from outside France in the French language. DELF & DALF are composed of 6 independent diplomas that correspond to the levels of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

The 6 diplomas that make up DELF and DALF are completely independent.

This means that candidates can register for the examination of their choice, according to their level.

The junior version of DELF has the same basic structure as the standard DELF. Only the topics are different: the materials take into account the interests of young people. It can only be taken by children in highschool. The diploma awarded is identical to the standard DELF diploma.

DELF Prim is the first level in the DELF / DALF series. DELF Prim is intended for children who are either beginners in French as a Foreign Language or who are undertaking studies corresponding to the French elementary level. Successful candidates receive a certificate identical to the general public version.

DELF PRO - professional option

The DELF Pro is the professional version of the DELF diploma.

The DELF Pro assesses communication skills necessary in most professional situations.

The themes of the test reflect the working environment.

The test is made up of four separate certificates, which correspond to the first 4 levels of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

TEF TEFAQ - for Quebec immigrants TEFEO

TEF and TEFAQ aim to assess the French language fluency of non native speakers of French. They assess comprehension and communication skills, evaluate the performance of each candidate in these skills and provide a comprehensive and personalized analysis of results.

The TEFEO (TEF, oral tests) can be used in the context of an application for French nationality from the French government. Its objective is to evaluate solely the candidates' language skills in oral comprehension (listening) and oral expression (speaking).
